Detailed Action

1. The following communication is in response to an amendment filed 3/7/2011.

Status of Claims

2. Claims 1-3, 6, 7, 15, 16, 19, 40, 65, and 66 are amended.
3. Claims 1-3, 7, 14-19, 39, 40, and 64-67 are currently pending.
4. Claims 1-3, 7, 14-19, 39, 40, and 64-67 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

6. The closest prior art that the examiner has been able to locate is "Vesting and Finance Issues Related to Tax-Deferred Exchanges Under IRC 1031" By Todd R. Pajonas. Pajonas teaches exchanging, by an owner of a property, into a new property decided upon by the REIT. The new property is then entered into the REIT. In order to prove the property is being used for "business or investment purposes" the new property is entered into the REIT as an option. The owner places the property into the REIT as a put and the REIT then has a call option on the property.

Pajonas fails to teach exchanging the old property for a new property owned by the REIT. Pajonas also fails to teach leasing the replacement property to the REIT, with the operating partnership underwriting the lease.

Applicant's claims clearly claim the operating partnership underwriting the lease of the replacement property. Further, Applicant's claim the operating partnership owns the property prior to an investor acquiring it.

The following is a formal statement of reasons for allowance:

7. Claims 1 and 40 are allowed because the best prior art of record, Vogel, alone or in combination, neither discloses nor fairly suggest the limitations, in a method:

receiving a request for a replacement property from an investor owning a relinquished property;

identifying, through the operation of a computer system, at least one property from among a plurality of properties previously acquired by said operating partnership as the replacement property, in response to said request;

exchanging, in said computer system, said relinquished property for said replacement property, in accordance with the requirements of Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code, wherein said exchanging includes entering into an exercisable agreement to transfer said replacement property from said investor to said operating partnership in exchange for said operating partnership units, in accordance with the requirements of Section 721 of the Internal Revenue Code and leasing, in the computer system, said replacement property to said operating partnership, said operating partnership underwriting said lease.

Claims 2, 3, 7, 14-19, 39, and 64-67 are also allowable for the same reason discussed above, in that they are dependent on allowed Claims 1 and 40. As a final matter any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and; to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submission should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
